FINANCE AND TRADE.

HERALD OFFICE, JULY 1, 1875.

The shipment of gold to Europe still continues, and gold is on the rise. The treasure shipments from New York for the week ending June 19th were nearly as large as the total imports of specie and bullion at that port for the past six months. The amount shipped was $2,200,000, and all of it went to England and Germany, except $7,000 to Cuba. Nearly the entire sum was in American gold coin. We believe this is the largest weekly shipment this year. The total sent off since January 1st to June 19th compares as follows: 1874, $2,223,000; 1875, $4,680,000; 1876, $4,672,000; 1875, $8,838,000. Gold today is reported at 74 1/2 premium and greenbacks are 85 1/2.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

European reports say the grain market is in a somewhat unsettled condition in France and unfavorable American reports. Crops are good in England, Germany and Russia, but are poor in Hungary and France. The Southern States of this country will have the largest wheat crop in their history. The surplus of the United States is 2,000,000 bushels. In New York the market was as follows: Spring wheat, 1 1/2; winter wheat, 1 1/4; corn, 1 1/4; oats, 1 1/4; barley, 1 1/4; rye, 1 1/4; clover, 1 1/4; timothy, 1 1/4; alfalfa, 1 1/4; hay, 1 1/4; straw, 1 1/4; etc.

CALIFORNIA CROP REPORTS.

The unexpected rains of a recent date have undoubtedly done harm, but as usual, the damage is exaggerated. In most of the counties which suffered from this untimely visitation, a close investigation shows that the actual damage is not great, and in several counties, the damage to grain is more than compensated by the benefit to other crops. We have not the space to make the copious extracts we wish, but the general outlook is comfortable.

THE WOOL MARKET.

Eastern reports show an improved wool market for the finest grades, but still the market looks like life with dealers and buyers generally believed would prevail at this period of the season. Manufacturers are far behind in the total amount of Fall graded and manufactured so far this season, for though some lines are meeting with a fair demand, the wool market, generally speaking, is without life, with prices very much in favor of purchasers. Foreign clothing wool continues depressed, and holders are in many instances shipping to Europe, as the condition of the wool market is reported as being better than here. Fleeces arrive very slowly, and as few purchases have been made, owing to the extreme slowness of the market, Spring California is weak, but considerable business has been done in recent weeks. Fall grades are steady. Texas is being received quite freely. The choicest grades are sold above the views of the market, and the wool is being sold at steady rates. Among the sales have been 30,000 lbs. of Spring California at 20 1/2; 10,000 lbs. of state do. at 22 1/2; 22,000 lbs. of California do. at 24 1/2; 22,000 lbs. of state do. at 26 1/2; 17,000 lbs. of Fall do. at 28 1/2.

The Boston report says: The demand for wool has been fair, and sales have been up to the full average, comprising for the week upwards of 15,000 pounds of domestic, Spring California, combining and delaine fleeces and unwashed fleeces. There is no change to notice in the market. It continues steady. Texas is being received quite freely. The choicest grades are sold above the views of the market, and the wool is being sold at steady rates. Among the sales have been 30,000 lbs. of Spring California at 20 1/2; 10,000 lbs. of state do. at 22 1/2; 22,000 lbs. of California do. at 24 1/2; 22,000 lbs. of state do. at 26 1/2; 17,000 lbs. of Fall do. at 28 1/2.

San Francisco rates are as follows: Choice long, 2 1/2; heavy, 2 1/4; light, 2 1/4; etc.

THE HIDE MARKET.

New York reports say there is little or no demand for California hides, and prices, in consequence, are only nominal.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Wholesale dealers report a fair and comfortable trade. The retail trade, however, is not so good. Dealers are enjoying a season of great activity. The market is well supplied with goods, and prices are moderate. New apples and pears are appearing plentifully and prices are coming down within the reach of all.

Arizona Items.

[Yuma Sentinel, 26th.]
Mr. David Neahr, has some trees growing beautifully in front of his new house. We noticed orange, pepper, eucalyptus and some other kinds, all deep green and luxuriant.

Henry Burrough, Esq., of Fresno Co. Cal., and Chas. H. Wells, of the Arizona Express Co., arrived last Saturday morning by the San Diego stage.

Master Frank Wightman, of H. S.
Fitzgerald & Co., and Master Johnny Moore, arrived from San Francisco by the San Diego stage last Saturday morning. Johnny went on by Monday's stage to the home of his parents at Maricopa Wells.

Sergt. E. W. Boutelle, of the signal Service, U. S. A., for some time the accomplished operator at Yuma Depot, left here last Wednesday by stage en route for Camp Apache, to commence the construction of the extension of the military telegraph spoken of in our last. The Sergeant carries with him the best wishes of this community, who know him as an excellent operator and an energetic and active constructor, as well as an intelligent and pleasant gentleman.

One of the peculiarities of Arizona the great diversity of climate, which exists within its borders. This may also be considered one of her greatest advantages. Men differ about climate as well as about anything else, but in this vast Territory all tastes may be gratified. A man can find any kind of climate that he chooses, except that of extreme frigidity. This difference in temperature in different sections is not owing to latitude, but is altogether owing to altitude. The whole country is habitable and fit for the abode of civilized man, from near the level of the sea up to an altitude of nearly seven thousand feet.

Santa Barbara Items.

[From the News 26th inst.]
We, the Grand Jury, of the June term of this court, respectfully report that we have duly considered all the business presented to us, and herewith present four indictments—one for murder, against Jack Cotton and Caroline Norton; one against "Smart Alicks" for obtaining money under false pretences, and one against Ed. Warren for the crime of embezzlement.

There was a slight mistake about the account of the stage robbery in our issue of yesterday morning. In the first place the three horsemen didn't ask for Wells, Fargo & Co.'s box. In the second place the three horsemen didn't stop the stage, and in the third place the stage wasn't robbed at all. The whole amount of the business is, there were two "Smart Alicks" on the stage yesterday—a passenger and the driver; and these two worthies told a gentleman on his way South, that the stage had been robbed.
On his arrival here he reported what he had been told by the driver; hence the false report. The stage company ought to give that driver a leather medal. He's too smart to be without one.

Jesus Leyva, charged with rape, was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant, by Sheriff Covarrubias.

Rev. T. H. Sinne, D. D., of the University of the Pacific, is visiting old friends in Santa Barbara. The Doctor preached an able and eloquent discourse in the Methodist Church, Sabbath morning. Besides being an able preacher he is a fine educator.

The Grand Jury brought in no indictment against Stubblefield for the shooting of Jas. Allen, there being insufficient evidence enough to bring a charge against him.

Bone-Gathering in the Valley of the Arkansas.

During the Winter and Spring hundreds of settlers all along this valley have supported their families by gathering up buffalo bones and hauling them to the towns. The parties of forty miles each way from the railroad have been gleaned over till not a relic of the chase can be found. Heads and ribs are worth $5 a ton. These are shipped to Philadelphia and ground up into fertilizers. Skins and shoulder blades are worth $10 a ton; these go to the sugar refineries. The horns are worth $30; the tips are sawed off here and sent to the factories of umbrellas, fans, pipes; the remainder is used by the chemists. Bits of hide found hanging to the heads are taken off and sent to the glue factories. Every fragment of these animals is made to serve a purpose. The trade has been opportunity for the settlers, as it brought them the means of a livelihood when the crops failed; otherwise they would have been compelled to abandon their homesteads.—Corr. Kansas City Journal.

Friends.

When a man is in luk his friends are as thick as the fleas on a dog, and just about as usefull and hard to get rid of. But I have seen dogs get so poor that the fleas had all left them in disgust. Summer friends are plenty, but when winter sets in they seek a warmer climate. The way I manage with my friends is to treat them just as tho I expected to lose them some cold wet morning. Where-ever the sugar is, there the flies assemble. One or two friends that will stand a hard freeze is enough, and is as many as any man ever had, and when he wanted them most. Friendship is a pretty word, and looks sweetly in worsted work or boarding-school stanzas, but it has cheated more people than any other word in the whole dictionary.—Josh Billings.

A squaw sat down on the curb in front of the postoffice in Austin, Nevada, and, unrolling a bundle of calico, commenced the manufacture of a dress. In less than an hour the dress was finished, and putting it on over her old clothes the squaw pulled out a pin here, a peg there, and untied a string in another place, made one step, and presto! the old clothes lay in the gutter. Gathering up the rags just shed, the noble daughter of the forest cast one look of triumph on the spectators, and skipped gracefully off in the direction of the Indian camp. A prominent citizen, who was an interested witness of the transaction, mildly remarked that he would give $30 if Mrs. P. C. could shed herself like that.

Work on the Hollister Water Works will be commenced immediately.

A Mother-in-law's Protective Association is being organized at Vallejo.
